

QUARTERLY REPORT

FY24 Quarter 1 - NEIGHBORHOOD TEAM

Neighborhood Engagement and Investment Activities

Marked by high levels of relationship-building and the launch of three new engagement projects/initiatives, the Neighborhood Engagement Team's first quarter (in existence!) has been a success. Read on for the details →

LINKS

Neighborhood Engagement and Investment Activities Dashboard

Neighborhood Grants Initiative Dashboard

DATA SNAPSHOT

NGI Award Breakdown by Neighborhood

Sum of Awarded Amount

Block Club Trainings Planned

4

Completed Needs Assessment Surveys

73

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Women in GGC have been the most active participants in filling out the Community Needs Assessment
- Data shows that Affordable Homeownership, Homeownership Services and Rental Services are the primary needs of their household.
- Combination of women's completion rates of assessment and identified housing needs highlights value of Women Build
- Successfully launched relationship mapping in WP and GGC

WHAT'S NEXT

- Block Club campaign and trainings in West Pullman to begin in Q2
- QLF sector leader interviews to begin in Q2

QUARTERLY REPORT

Take a peak into our neighborhoods...

West Pullman

- Through the NGI program, four developing block clubs have been identified and set up for Q2 block support
- We will be partnering with Phalanx Family Services for needs assessment administration through Q3
- Our needs assessment has revealed that almost 80% of WP residents learn about community activities via Word of Mouth

Pictured: Pony rides at 119th/Union block party

---

Greater Grand Crossing

- "Habitat Champions" Kick-off was a success this September
- Resident leaders expressed appreciation and the need for the deliverables identified: collective calendaring, social network analysis and community surveying
- New recruitment strategy is proving to be a success with October HU happening at Revere Elementary

Pictured: Habitat Champions inaugural meeting

---

Austin

Do you KNOW our neighborhoods?

Who said the following quote?

"I believe we should all know each other, we human carriers of so many pleasurable differences. To not know is to doubt, to shrink from, sidestep or destroy."

A.) Cary Campbell Comer; B.) Wilton Daniel Gregory C.) Gwendolyn Brooks D.) Angela Jackson

Check out next quarter's report for the answer!